Right of opposition (Art. 21) <input style="width: 50px; height: 20px; margin-top: 10px;" type="checkbox"/>	You have the right at any time to object, in whole or in part, to the processing of your personal data if the processing is carried out for the pursuit of a legitimate interest of the Controller or if the processing is carried out for direct marketing purposes.	Specify for which treatments / purposes you wish to exercise your right:
Right to apply to the data protection authority (Art. 77)	Without prejudice to any other administrative or judicial remedy, if you consider that the processing of your personal data is in breach of the Regulation on the protection of personal data, you have the right to lodge a complaint with a control authority, in particular in the Member State where you have your normal residence, work or the place where the alleged breach has occurred.

The exercise of these rights is subject to the limits, rules and procedures laid down by the GDPR. The interested party must know them and implement them. Furthermore, in accordance with the provisions of article 12, paragraph 3, the Controller shall provide the interested party with information relating to the action taken without undue delay and, in any case, no later than one month after receipt of the request. This period may be extended by two months, if necessary, taking into account the complexity and number of requests. The Data Controller shall inform the data subject of such extension, and of the reasons for the delay, within one month of receipt of the request.

The Controller reserves the right to charge a fee in the event of manifestly unfounded or excessive (even repetitive) requests.

The exercise of right is free of charge. However, if the Controller has reasonable doubts as to the identity of the natural person making the present request, he may request further information necessary to confirm the identity of the person concerned.

I am informed that the data indicated in this form are used exclusively to provide feedback to requests and will be kept for 5 years, in order to ensure proper proof of the procedure, for any exercise of rights in administrative or judicial proceedings.
